Future All-Stars

Future All-Stars Basketball Camp is a co-ed basketball camp held in the Cockeysville and Reisterstown areas of Baltimore County. Camp is open to boys and girls in third through tenth grade. Our outstanding staff of college and high school coaches and players will emphasize instruction on defense, offense and fundamental skills, all while having a great time!

Coaches will work with campers to develop advanced basketball skills and give honest evaluations. Our combination of daily games, guest speakers, valuable instruction and fun activities will make Future All-Stars Basketball Camp an exciting time for you and your friends!

Camp Highlights

- Each camper will receive a camp t-shirt, a participation trophy and an official size basketball.
- College and High School All-Star Slam Dunk Show!
-  Friday
- Guest Speakers
- Daily Contest and Awards Ceremony
- Three full-court games per day

Camp Director Matt Lochte

Coach Matt Lochte is a certified Maryland State teacher and basketball coach. Coach Lochte teaches physical education at Dulaney High School and is the boys' varsity basketball coach.

Coach Lochte has been teaching and coaching in Baltimore County for eleven years. He started his career at Franklin Middle School, teaching physical education to all grades. He was a teacher there for five years before transferring to Dulaney High. This will be his ninth summer running Future All-Stars Basketball Camp.
