Future All-Stars

A three-day mini co-ed basketball camp held at Franklin Middle School during Spring Break. Camp is open to boys and girls in second through tenth grade. Our outstanding staff of college and high school coaches and players will emphasize instruction on defense, offense, and fundamental skills. Coaches will work with campers to develop advanced basketball skills and give honest evaluations. Our combination of daily games, guest speakers, valuable instruction, and fun activities will make Future All-Stars Spring Fling an awesome Spring Break experience.

Camp Director Matt Lochte

Coach Lochte is a certified Maryland State teacher and basketball coach. Coach Lochte teaches Physical Education and is the Head Varsity Boys' Basketball Coach at Dulaney High School.
